Karagwe, Tanzania

Mr. Kayongo is a community development worker with over ten year's field experience with rural-based agricultural communities in the great lakes region of Africa. Sam has worked for more than half of this time as the Planning and Development Officer for the Evangelical Lutheran Church Diocese in the Karagwe area. His experience and education provide deep insights regarding the capacity building aspects of the KARUCO program and curriculum.

Sam holds a basic degree in Social Work and a postgraduate qualification in Public Administration from Makerere University, Kampala, Uganda. Sam is currently a member of the Karagwe University College (KARUCO) establishment Task Force and its sub-committee on Curriculum Development.
